

Karen Walsh

Vice President People and Organizational Development
Golden Star Resources
Toronto, ON

Karen Walsh joined Golden Star in July 2012 as Vice President People and Organizational Development. Prior to joining Golden Star, she spent six years consulting in the mining industry following her role as Senior Vice President, Human Resources for Placer Dome Inc. Karen has a broad range of human resources expertise including recruiting, succession planning, cultural change initiatives, HR process optimization, project development feasibility studies, global leadership development and performance management.