

Tara Wiseman

Tara Wiseman is Vice-President, Total Rewards for Kinross Gold Corporation, currently responsible for executive compensation and global compensation and benefits programs. She also participates in establishing the global HR strategy and in leading global HR initiatives, such as Kinross' new Integrated Talent Management approach, and the Diversity and Inclusion efforts. Her focus is on ensuring all HR programs are well aligned to, and support, the business, and help ensure the attraction and retention of key talent across the company.

Tara has over 20 years of experience in Human Resources, having held a wide range of positions which included generalist / business partner roles, as well as a range of specialist areas: pension & benefits, global mobility, HR systems, recruitment, HR metrics and performance management.

Tara is a Certified Human Resources Leader (CHRL), and is a current member of the Human Resources Professional Association.